THE DEMOCRATS CONVENT.
The Crow Wing County Convention held last Saturday.
The Democratic county convention was called to order at the court house last Saturday afternoon by G. W. Holland, chairman. The first business was the election of a temporary chairman and secretary, G. W. Holland and D. M. Clark being chosen for the respective places, the temporary organization being afterward made permanent.
The chairman appointed as a committee on credentials C. D. Johnson, Pat Murphy, S. W. Searles and T. M. Reilly, as a committee on permanent organization H. C. Stivers, James Hawkins and Con O'Brien.
The committee on credentials repaired to a room and after examining the certificates returned and made the following report:
"Mr. Chairman—Your committee on credentials has the honor to report: We find that the following delegates are entitled to seats in this convention:
First Ward—J. N. Murphy, P. Murphy, S. W. Searles, N. Lafond and H. C. Stivers.
Second Ward—G. W. Holland, D. M. Clark, L. P. White, N. W. Wheatley and C. D. Johnson.
Third Ward—James Cullen, T. M. Reilly, James Hawkins and W. H. Meekins.
Fourth Ward—J. McMahon, H. Harrison, H. Thorne and Con O'Brien.
We would further report that the credentials of the delegates from the second ward are signed by J. N. Murphy, whose name also appears upon the list of delegates, but the fact being known that Mr. Rice participated in and presided at a Republican ward caucus held in this city on the 4th day of September, 1886, and such being the case we think it sufficient evidence that he is still a Republican, and is therefore not eligible to a seat in the convention. We received the next highest number of votes as a delegate to this convention and is therefore entitled to a seat in this convention."
When this report was read to the convention and a motion made to adopt it Mr. Rice arose to his feet to make an explanation to the delegates, and he had hardly got to the part where he said that "he had always been a democrat," when Pat Murphy from the first ward arose and informed Mr. Rice that no explanation was necessary, because a man who would allow himself to preside a chairman of a Republican ward caucus could not call himself a Democrat, and that he had no right to a seat there. Mr. Rice seemed very anxious to impress upon the minds of the convention that he was actually a democrat, and he said that Mr. Murphy again objected and inquired how he could be a Democrat and a Republican at the same time, and seemed to think the feat an impossible one for a man to perform and still "hold his job." The chairman finally declined to let Mr. Rice make a few remarks but they had no effect and the ballot was unanimous to refuse him a seat in the convention and J. H. Koop was elected as proxy for N. W. Wheatley who was absent.

A motion was then made to elect three delegates to the State convention by ballot, the three receiving the highest number of votes to be declared elected, which resulted as follows: H. S. Totton 15, Con O'Brien 14, J. H. Koop 10, S. P. Fleming 7, N. W. Wheatley 2, G. W. Holland 2, the first three being declared elected.

The following resolutions were then presented to the convention by H. C. Stivers and unanimously adopted:
RESOLVED, That this convention fully endorse the administration of President Cleveland, and pledges the fidelity of the Democratic party of Crow Wing county to the Democratic party and its principles.

RESOLVED, That the federal appointments recommended by Hon. P. H. Kelly, member of the National Democratic Committee, and Hon. Michael Doran, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, have our hearty approval, and we hereby extend our confidence in the ability and good judgment of Messrs. Kelly and Doran in the exercise of their respective duties as such officers.

RESOLVED, That this convention is in favor of the nomination of A. A. Ames, of Minneapolis, for governor, and recommends that the delegates to the State convention use every effort to secure his nomination.

A motion was then made and carried to elect three delegates to the Democratic congressional district convention by acclamation, which resulted in electing the following gentlemen: James Hawkins, T. M. Reilly and C. D. Johnson.

The convention then adjourned.
Our stock of heavy cassimere and flannel shirts was never as large as at present, we have lately added many new and attractive styles. DAY & MEAGHER.

Trunks and Valises at Westfall's.
The depot is finished. It was a short job when once commenced. The section house and other R. R. buildings have received a coat of paint, and present a very neat appearance.

The carpenters who built the depot have taken to Royalt to make some necessary improvements on the depot at this place.
Crow Wing is a good point for some one to put in a store.

The people in this vicinity were somewhat disappointed in the amount of the fair being postponed. Some had their vegetables all loaded ready to start for town when they heard of the postponement, and others hauled their things to town and had to sell them or bring them back.

Little Willie Mayo has been seriously ill with diphtheria, but is now recovering. It is hoped that the effects of the disease will not cling to him as long as it has to some other children in the town. Count-Gardner.
MARSH—At the residence of J. K. Pierce, on the evening of Sept. 13th, 1886, by the Rev. Dr. Hawley, Alfred J. Count and Miss Belle Gardner both of this city.
The parties to the above contract are well known to the Brainerd people and comment from us is unnecessary. The groom is a music dealer, having been in the business here for some time, and the bride is a sister of ex-Mayor J. S. Gardner. The wedding party is said to have been a very pleasant and social occasion, about forty of the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present. After the ceremony was over and inter change congratulations extended the entire party sat down to an elegant repast. The balance of the evening was spent in good cheer, as is only known on such occasions, and the newly made man and wife departed on the midnight train for Chicago and other points for a few days' wedding trip. The following is a list of presents:
From the groom to bride, a very fine piano.
Geo. E. Gardner, silver and glass sugar bowl.

Miss L. Ross, silver and cut glass fruit dish.
F. M. Maxfield, set of china dishes.

Leonard Powell, a globe of very fine wax work.
Cecilia Kennedy, stained glass water pitcher.
Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Pearce, bed room toilet set.

A Sunday Blaze.
Last Sunday as the people were returning from church the fire bell pealed forth its notes of warning. The cause of the alarm was the burning of the residence of G. Fogelstrom in southeast Brainerd, the alarm being given by A. J. Graham, who saw the smoke arising and who ran from the dump to the house house. The department responded immediately, but the distance from the engine house to the scene of action was so great that before they arrived the house was destroyed. The fire was first discovered in the upper story and must have caught from the chimney, and when discovered was too far along to be subdued without the aid of the department. The neighbors managed to get most of the household goods out although in a somewhat demoralized condition. Mr. Fogelstrom has certainly had very hard luck, he having been burned out once before, and is now just recovering the use of his limb which was broken last spring, and from which he was laid up several months. There was an insurance of $500 on the property.

This fire will probably have an effect on the city council to allow that part of the city a few hundred feet of hose which has been asked for but which request was not granted. Had there been hose in any available place the house could have been saved, but as it was the man was obliged to stand by and see his house destroyed, and which any man living in that part of the city is liable to do unless some protection is granted them.

The huzzing of the Democratic machine could be heard all over St. Paul Tuesday.

Nearly half the oleomargarine exported from this country is returned in the shape of foreign cheese.

Mr. Charles A. Dana, editor of the New York Sun, receives $15,000 a year for editing that paper.

The Crow Wing County Agricultural Society receives $25.95 as its amount of the State appropriation.

Two hundred Knights of Labor cigar makers have struck in Philadelphia against the employment of Culans.

The oleomargarine law imposes a tax of five cents per pound on all imported oleomargarine, in addition to the regular duties.

St. Louis county democrats instructed their delegation to the congressional convention in favor of A. J. Sawyer, the Duluth elevator man for congress.

The Democratic board of education at Springfield, Ohio, have excluded colored children from the public schools and refuse to make any provision for them.

It will be surprising perhaps to the public to know that after spending $8,000,000 in surveys, there is still no actual map in existence of the United States.

E. A. Barnstrom, of Burns, Anoka county, committed suicide by shooting Sunday. He had trouble with his wife and first aimed the weapon at her, but changed his mind and shot himself.

The third party vote in Maine, including prohibition, greenback and scattering two years ago was about 40,000. This year it is about 3,500. The Republican vote is the largest it has been in the off year for fifteen years.

A Frenchman with prophetic tendencies declares that the great iron tower 1,000 feet high, proposed to be built in Paris, will become magnetic on account of the huge blocks of iron running north and south. In this case all iron things a mile around will be drawn to it.

The Crow Wing county fair has been postponed until next week, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. This is on account of outside attractions which will draw heavily on the people of this city, and the managers desired a full attendance. The idea is a good one.

A peculiar incident is recorded by a California exchange in which it states that a steamer started to cross the bay at Sacramento with an engine and boiler, and when nearly over the engine started and jumped overboard, carrying the cabin with it, and drowning one man who was thought to have been asleep.

The Morrison county Democrat is a new addition to our exchange list. His first issue here. Auer gives great promises for the future and although he is on the wrong side of the fence politically, we wish him success. There is one thing in his favor and that is the fact of his being a Democrat from principle and no straddler from one party to another for the sake of office.

The Indian commission at Leech Lake have made a treaty with the Pillager Indians which provides for the cession of the Leech Lake reservation to the United States, and the sale thereof in tracts of forty acres each, under sealed proposals, to the highest bidder for cash, the proceeds derived therefrom to be placed to their credit in the treasury of the United States, and to draw 5 per cent interest, which interest is to be annually expended for their benefit. They will be removed to the White Earth reservation.

Among the various aspirants for the commission of the 5th district is S. P. Fleming, of East Brainerd. Mr. Fleming is certainly a representative man from his district and we are informed that his candidacy is not of his own seeking but at the solicitation of prominent business men and property holders of that part of the city and county, and he is well known to be a man of good business judgment and one not to be blown about by every wind. He is not an alien, and he is not a Jew, and another point in his favor. It is the wish of the people of that district Mr. Fleming will consent to allow his name to be used at the coming election for the position.

Passes for Seven. Passes for "Robert" and seven" conveyed the Otter Tail county delegation to the democratic state convention at St. Paul on Monday-Fergus Falls Journal.

When the railroad companies give passes to the delegates to a state convention the thinking voter will remember that CORPORATIONS and CAPITALISTS are after something. And still the democratic agitators in this city and elsewhere will persist in claiming that the cause they advocate is free from any taint in that direction. The theory is too thin and although they boast of it, the democratic nominee will not capture the labor vote in Minnesota this fall, solid or otherwise. There are men in the ranks of the laborers who have a mind of their own and who can see through a hole if it is small. Even was this the only issue at stake, there are republicans and democrats, too, for that matter, who will stick by their old party ties when it comes down to voting for a man of either political faith. The complete capture of the labor vote as bragged of by the democrats of to-day is all based on a whole lot of lies, and the November election will prove the truth of the assertion. The people are too much enlightened to be led around by the nose, as a majority, although there are some men who would sell out themselves and their party for empty honor.

An Afflicted Family. Beggar-Will you please give me a dime, sir? I'm deaf and dumb. Gentleman-I don't find it. Beggar-I mean I'm blind. It is my twin brother who is deaf and dumb, sir. We look so much alike that I get mist up myself sometimes.-Harper's Bazar.

Sold to Boss Kelly.

The following extract from the daily press of St. Paul would indicate that the Ames outfit will not capture the workmen's votes in a solid form as they have been claiming all along.

The committee on the rights of Labor openly charged Ames with selling out to Boss Kelly this afternoon because McGaughey was shut out from speaking before the convention prior to the meeting of the committee on resolutions. The refusal to allow Mr. McGaughey the floor created a good deal of dissatisfaction among working men.

The Knights out of Politics

"Anybody who says or intimates," said District Masterworkman McGaughey, "that the Knights have sold out to Boss Kelly this afternoon because McGaughey was shut out from speaking before the convention prior to the meeting of the committee on resolutions. The refusal to allow Mr. McGaughey the floor created a good deal of dissatisfaction among working men."

The Pioneer Press says that the rumor has been afloat for some time, though lacking any confirmation from Messrs. Kelly and Dorman, that A. Guernsey's appointment as collector of port of St. Vincent had been agreed upon. The circumstances of Guernsey's late rejection by the senate are familiar to all. It is said now that Senator Sabin has been convinced that he injured himself in opposing Guernsey and that he will withdraw his opposition. President Cleveland has also been so convinced, but it is thought that on a proper presentation of the facts that he will not hesitate to reappoint Guernsey during the present vacancy of congress.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company Respects by Its Employees.

The St. Paul Labor Echo in commenting upon the report published in the daily papers recently that a strike would be ordered by the Knights of Labor of all members of the order employed by the Northern Pacific Railroad company, indignantly denies the report, and states that the company treats its men fairly, and is therefore respected by all of its employees. The Echo says:

There is not a day in the week that organized labor is not seriously injured by the efforts of the daily press to keep the public in ignorance of the facts of the case. The new stock of fall goods just received at Young & Co's is exciting considerable comment among the ladies of the city. The particularly interesting feature is the elegant line of cloaks and wraps which come direct from Springer Bros., Boston, and which are certainly the finest we have yet seen, comprising all the latest styles and being actually cheap considering the quality of the material used. Besides these cloaks is an elegant new line of dress goods, etc., which will bear the closest inspection by parties desiring to buy.

There has been some little talk in regard to the bill which was allowed Sheriff Mertz, at the last meeting of the county commissioners in the "Kid" Brady matter and to correct any wrong ideas we wish to state that the bill of $76.45 was not merely allowed for "the arrest and commitment" as the official report would indicate, but for fees and mileage in arresting him at Minneapolis and for 45 days board besides. This bill, although paid by the county commissioners, does not come out of the county as Brady's father in order to get his boy out of jail put up for the entire amount which was paid over to the Municipal Judge at the time the young man was released.

Sheriff Mertz, Dr. Camp, Clerk of Court S. F. Alderman and Lawyer McManahan started for Grand Rapids via Atkin, Tuesday morning on a business and pleasure trip. We will bet a nickel against a codfish that he thought of a hundred times before he got to Atkin, but then he will tell just as huge hunting stories when he gets back as though he had taken his gun along.

THE DEMOCRATS CONVENT.

The Crow Wing County Convention held last Saturday.

The Democratic county convention was called to order at the court house last Saturday afternoon by G. W. Holland, chairman. The first business was the election of a temporary chairman and secretary, G. W. Holland and D. M. Clark being chosen for the respective places, the temporary organization being afterward made permanent.

The chairman appointed as a committee on credentials C. D. Johnson, Pat Murphy, S. W. Searies and T. M. Reilly, and as a committee on permanent organization H. C. Stivers, James Hawkins and Con O'Brien.

The committee on credentials reported to a room and after examining the certificates returned and made the following report:

"Mr. Chairman—Your committee on credentials beg leave to make the following report: We find that the following delegates are entitled to seats in this convention:

First Ward—J. N. Murry, P. Murphy, S. W. Searies, N. Lafond and H. C. Stivers.

Second Ward—G. W. Holland, D. M. Clark, L. P. White, N. W. Wheatley and C. D. Johnson.

Third Ward—James Cullen, T. M. Reilly, James Hawkins and W. H. Meekins.

Fourth Ward—J. McMahon, H. Harrison, H. Thieriot and Con O'Brien.

We could further report that the credentials of the delegates from the second ward are signed by Fred Rice, whose name also appears upon the list of delegates, but the fact being known that Mr. Rice participated in and presided at a Republican ward caucus held in this city on the 4th day of September, 1886, and such being the case we think it sufficient evidence that he is still an ally of the republican party, and is therefore not eligible to a seat in the convention. We further find that at the second ward caucus held Friday night, Sept. 10th, N. W. Wheatley received the highest number of votes as a delegate to this convention and is therefore entitled to a seat in the convention."

When this report was read to the convention and a motion made to adopt it Mr. Rice arose to his feet to make an explanation to the delegates, and he had hardly got to the part where he said that "he had always been a democrat," when Pat Murphy from the first ward arose and informed Mr. Rice that no explanation was necessary, because a man who would allow himself to preside a chairman of a Republican ward caucus could not call himself a Democrat, and that he had no right to a seat there. Mr. Rice seemed very anxious to impress upon the minds of the convention that he was actually a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, but Mr. Murphy again objected and inquired how he could be a Democrat and a Republican at the same time, and seemed to think the feat an impossible one for a man to perform and who when his job was done would extend our confidence in the chairman finally concluded to let Mr. Rice make a few remarks but they had no effect and the ballot was unanimously to refuse him a seat in the convention and J. H. Koop was elected as proxy for N. W. Wheatley who was absent.

A motion was then made to elect three delegates to the State convention by ballot, the three receiving the highest number of votes to be declared elected, which resulted as follows: H. S. Totton 15, Con O'Brien 14, J. H. Koop 10, S. P. Fleming 7, N. W. Wheatley 2, G. W. Holland 2, the first three being declared elected.

The following resolutions were then presented to the convention by H. C. Stivers and unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED, That this convention fulfills the duty of the National Democratic Convention, and pledges the fidelity of the Democrats of Crow Wing county to the Democratic party and its principles.

RESOLVED, That the federal appointments recommended by Hon. P. H. Kellogg, secretary of the National Democratic Committee, and Hon. Michael Doran, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, have our hearty approval, and we hereby extend our confidence in their respective duties as such officers.

RESOLVED, That this convention is in favor of the nomination of A. A. Ames, of Minneapolis, for governor, and recommends that the delegates elected by this convention to attend the State convention use all honorable means to secure his nomination.

A motion was then made and carried to elect three delegates to the Democratic congressional district convention by acclamation, which resulted in electing the following gentlemen: James Hawkins, T. M. Reilly and C. D. Johnson.

The convention then adjourned.

Our stock of heavy cassimere and flannel shirts was never as large as at present, we have lately added many new and attractive styles. DAY & MEAGHER.

Catholic Fair.
Posters have been printed at this office announcing the Sixth Annual Catholic Fair, which will be held at the roller rink on the evenings of September 22d, 23d and 24th, and promises to be a very enjoyable occasion. The interesting features of the fair will be the presentation of a gold headed cane to the most popular candidate for sheriff. A gold pen and penholder will be presented to the most popular county official. A lady's cloak will be disposed of, the candidates being Miss Mary Hawkins, of East Brainerd, and Miss Mary Lafond. There will also be a fine musical program every evening. Doors will be open at 7:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to be present.

Trunks and Valises at Westfalls.

Crow Wing Cullinens.
The depot is finished. It was a short job when once commenced. The section house and other R. R. buildings have received a coat of paint, and present a very neat appearance.

The carpenters who built the depot have gone to by iteration to make some necessary improvements on the depot at that place.

Crow Wing is a good point for some one to put in a store.

The people in this vicinity were somewhat disappointed on account of the fair being postponed. Some had their vegetables all loaded ready to start for town when they heard of the postponement, and others hauled their things to town and had to sell them or bring them back.

Little Willie Mayo has been seriously ill with diphtheria, but is now recovering. It is hoped that the effects of the disease will be a thing to him as long as it has to some other children in the town. A little girl of Joe Guyott's that had the diphtheria in the spring is still very weak and is only just beginning to be able to walk.

Court—Gardner.

MARRIED—At the residence of J. K. Pierce, on the evening of Sept. 15th, 1886, by the Rev. Dr. Hawley, Alfred J. Coutin and Miss Belle Gardner both of this city.

The parties to the above contract are well known to the Brainerd people and comment from us is unnecessary. The groom is a music dealer, having been in the business here for some time, and the bride is a sister of ex-Mayor J. S. Gardner. The wedding party is said to have been a very pleasant and social occasion, about forty of the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present. After the ceremony was over and inter change congratulations extended the entire party sat down to an elegant repast. The balance of the evening was spent in good cheer, as is only known on such occasions, and the newly made man and wife departed on the midnight train for Chicago and other points for a few days' wedding trip. The following is a list of presents:

From the groom to bride, a very fine piano.

A Sunday Blaze.
Last Sunday as the people were returning from church the bell pealed forth its notes of warning. The cause of the alarm was the burning of the residence of P. G. Fogelstrom in southeast Brainerd, the alarm being given by Aid. Graham, who saw the smoke arising and who ran from the dump to the house house. The department responded immediately, but the distance from the engine house to the scene of action was so great that before they arrived the house was destroyed. The fire was first discovered in the upper story and must have caught from the chimney, and when discovered was too far along to be subdued without the aid of the department. The neighbors managed to get most of the household goods out although in a somewhat demoralized condition. Mr. Fogelstrom has certainly had very hard luck, he having been burned out once before, and is now just recovering the use of his limb which was broken last spring, and from which he was laid up several months. There was an insurance of $600 on the property.

This fire will probably have an effect on the city council to allow that part of the city a few hundred feet of hose which has been asked for but which request was not granted. Had there been hose in any available place the house could have been saved, but as it was the man was obliged to stand by and see his house destroyed, and which any man living in that part of the city is liable to do unless some protection is granted them.

Mr. Hughes of this place died very suddenly last Saturday night at 10 o'clock of hemorrhage of the lungs. A. R. Hughes has been ailing for some time but nobody thought that his case was serious. He was a widower about 40 years old. He leaves one child, a girl about twelve years old to mourn his loss. He was taken to Minneapolis for burial.

Mr. Benson is getting no better. His recovery is considered doubtful.
